Kansas Lottery Encourages Responsible Gifting

TOPEKA, KAN. – The holidays are fast approaching, and while lottery tickets surely make holiday shopping easier, the Kansas Lottery is reminding players that only those 18 years or older are able to play.

The Kansas Lottery, in partnership with the National Council of Problem Gambling and the International Centre for Youth Gambling Problems and High-Risk Behaviors at McGill University, is joining the global campaign to encourage players to “gift responsibly” this holiday season.

The “Gift Responsibly” campaign advocates for responsible gambling as well as reminds players that “lottery tickets aren’t child’s play” and should not be given as gifts for individuals younger than 18 years old.

“While gifting lottery tickets is a fun and festive way to celebrate the holidays, lottery tickets are not for children,” said Executive Director Stephen Durrell. “The Kansas Lottery is very serious about responsible gaming and reminds all gift givers that lottery products should only be given to those 18 years or older.”

It is illegal for a Kansas Lottery retailer to knowingly sell a lottery ticket to a minor. The potential penalty for selling lottery tickets to a minor is up to one year in jail and a $2,500 fine. Minors are also prohibited by law from claiming a prize won on a Kansas Lottery ticket.

So remember, if you’re going to gift Lottery products this year, keep a person’s age in mind and gift responsibly!

Happy holidays from the Kansas Lottery!

Players are invited to submit all their winning and non-winning tickets in the Kansas Lottery PlayOn® Players Loyalty program to earn points for drawing entries and a chance to win cash and other prizes! PlayOn® is a registered trademark of Pollard Banknote Limited used under license.
