Hutchinson Woman Wins Fourth Kansas Lottery Prize in Four Years

TOPEKA, KAN. – Hutchinson resident Victoria Foreman was at Kansas Lottery headquarters in Topeka Tuesday to claim her fourth lottery prize in four years! The lucky 65-year-old claimed a $1,000 cash prize each year in 2013, 2014, and 2015. Her winning streak has continued into this year after she claimed a $10,000 top prize playing a \$2 Lucky Lines instant scratch ticket!

“This is really something,” said Foreman about her latest win. “I feel like I should pinch myself to make sure this is real. I don’t buy lottery tickets very often but when I do play, I like to play Lucky Lines. It’s my favorite game to play. Even if I don’t win they’re the most fun.”

After realizing she had won a $10,000 top prize, Foreman called her boyfriend Carter to share the good news. She then called the convenience store where she purchased her ticket and thanked the store clerk for selling her a big winning ticket.

“I didn’t get much sleep after that,” said Foreman. “I signed the back of my ticket and put it in my purse. Since I don’t have a reliable car, I rented a truck and Carter and I made the trip to Topeka to claim my prize. Now I can buy a better vehicle, pay off bills and maybe buy a diamond ring.”

Foreman purchased her winning ticket at Kwik Shop 768, located at 8 N. Main St. in South Hutchinson. There are six $10,000 top prizes remaining in the Lucky Lines game as well as thousands of other cash prizes.
