Final Preliminary Winner Drawn in Fast Money Promotion: One of Ten Finalists Competing for Muscle Car at State Fair Sept. 18

TOPEKA, KAN. – With the final preliminary winner drawn tonight at the Kansas State Fair in Hutchinson, the Kansas Lottery is ready for the “final ten” to compete in a Grand Prize Event at the State Fair September 18 to win their choice of three muscle cars!

The 10th preliminary winner in the Fast Money promotion is XXXXX of XXXXXXXX. He/she will join nine other players vying to win their choice of a beautiful new Ford Mustang, a Chevrolet Camaro or a Dodge Charger. The ten Fast Money finalists are:

1. Elizabeth Larson of Haysville
2. Richard Montano of Topeka
3. Greg Krentz of Spring Hill
4. James Harker of Leon
5. John Smith of Hutchinson
6. William Knight of Lansing
7. Preston Pannell of Wichita
8. Carol Courdin of Springfield, MO
9. James Ingram of Salina
10. Janet Vater of Olathe

Entries for the Fast Money promotion were non-winning $10 Fast Money instant scratch tickets. The Fast Money grand prize, which includes the winner’s choice of one of three “muscle cars,” as well as state and federal income withholding taxes and all initial fees for the vehicle, is valued at approximately $70,855.

The “Fast Money” Grand Prize Final Event will be held in the grandstand during intermission of the Outlaw Truck & Tractor Pull at approximately 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 18, at the Kansas State Fair in Hutchinson.
