Jackpots Continue to Climb for the Weekend; Powerball Jackpot $320 Million – Mega Millions $82 Million

TOPEKA, KAN. – Temperatures in Kansas may be declining, but Kansas Lottery jackpots are heating up! Mega Millions kicks off the weekend with a jackpot worth an estimated $82 million, with a cash option of $50.6 million.

The Hot Lotto and Super Kansas Cash jackpots continue to climb. The estimated Hot Lotto jackpot for Saturday night's drawing is $2.15 million. The Super Kansas Cash jackpot for Saturday night's drawing is an estimated $425,000.

Kansas had its first Lucky for Life drawing Thursday evening. Although no one matched all numbers to win $1,000 a day for life in last night's drawing, more than 6,000 Kansas Lottery players won a total of $36,886 in cash prizes in the drawing! Lucky for Life sales began in Kansas November 15. Drawings are held every Monday and Thursday.

In addition, the final Holiday Millionaire Raffle Early Bird drawing for $25,000 will be held November 27. Tickets purchased before an Early Bird drawing are eligible to win in that drawing and all subsequent drawings including the Grand Prize drawing January 3, 2017, in which the Lottery will draw a $1 million winning number and other numbers to win cash prizes from $100 to $25,000.
